

Connecting Disconnected Data®

Order Created

Physician office creates

Physician Order Management

Scheduling Notification Sent to Physician through Trace

Physician receives notification, via a return electronic fax, of scheduled procedure and associated worklists and reservations.

Order Available in EHR

The order is automatically exported to the EHR and integrated with the patient record.

Order Notification

Clinical department receives notice of order and can begin preparing for the appointment.

through Trace

Sent to Clinical Team

Order Available Enterprise-wide in Trace on the day of Appointment

The registrar locates the order in Trace upon patient arrival for check-in.

Scheduling Call Recorded in Trace

Scheduler receives the completed order and contacts the patient to schedule their appointment.

and sends an order to the hospital. Faxed Order Captured in Trace

4

Scheduling Notification Sent to Registrar

notification, via electronic fax, of scheduled procedure and associated worklists and reservations

Order Returned to Physician Office for Missing Info

there's missing information, they can send the order back to physician's office for completion.

If a scheduler notices that routed accordingly.

Scheduler receives alert of a new order received and reviews in the Trace®platform. Phoned-in orders can also be recorded in Trace and

